

Successful Children and Youth

Basic Needs

Children and youth have basic necessities including safe and stable housing, food, and clothing.

Educational Development and Attainment

Children and youth have access to quality early care that fosters school readiness and academic supports to reach their career goals.

Living Conditions

Children and youth live in environments free from biological, chemical and physical hazards and have accessible resources that promote well-being.

Family Structure

The stability of families and attributes of parents influence development of positive behaviors; healthy relationships; and environments free from abuse, neglect and trauma.

Health Care

Children and youth have access to physical, oral, behavioral, and long-term health care.

Support Networks

Children and youth have natural and community support systems that foster relationships and bolster healthy growth and development.

Successful Children and Youth are cared for by nurturing adults who support their healthy growth and development; live in safe environments free from abuse, neglect, and trauma; have basic necessities; have access to suitable recreational opportunities; have access to quality early care and education that fosters school readiness; choose healthy over risky behaviors; and have supports to develop employment and independent living skills.
